“ Mr. Braxton was a significant part of my growth at the city and in my personal life. He was my mentor and the father figure I never had. We met in 2006 when I was a labor. He poured into me the knowledge and life lesson that helped now become a manager at the City of Houston and the man I am today. I will be forever grateful to you for continuing to inspire me and support me whenever I needed you. I will take these lessons with me and pass them on. Now, you can rest easy my friend. You have fought the good fight, I'll take from here. Love you B!

“ Here’s your message cleaned up for flow, punctuation, and strength —no fluff added, just tightened:
*Praying for your strength and peace during this time. Brad Coles, an Original Maple Park Homeboy, will always be remembered as part of the foundation that shaped our community.
We had a wonderful childhood growing up in Maple Park—playing sports, making snowmen, Boy Scouts, riding bikes, and hanging out in Cooper Park. Truly fond memories.
His legacy lives on.
Rest well, Brad.
With love and respect,
Bob Gorman
