“ To God be the Glory for He is truly worthy to be praised!!! As a believer, we know to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord as a good thing; Chris was a believer. To the family and friends, Matthew 5:4 - Bless are those that mourn, for they will be comforted.

I work with Chris at TSU during his entire career as Tiger Family. It was always a joy to see him. He carried with him an amazing smile, no time for mess and love for others. As I type, I recall the many conversations that we had about a plethora of topics and man we could talk until we both ended up being behind schedule lol. His genuine spirit and the wisdom he yielded was his love for others. He truly answered Gods call, to love your neighbor as you love yourself.

May Chris now rest, in the loving arms of our Heavenly Father. My prayers are with each of you as you grieve the loss of such a wonderful person. Sean I am lifting up a special prayer, I know you and Chris held it down for us so many years together.

“ My favorite brother, this is still so unreal, I'm going to miss you. Our talks our laughs coming up with crazy recipes and then going to the store buying the stuff and making them avocado, tacos will never be the same. Chris, I just want you to know. You are amazing, big brother, my big teddy bear I know you are resting in heaven. So I'll try to hold back the tears because I know I will see you again. I love you big brother more than you will ever know

“ Hey most of our childhood memories majorily were spent whwn we were were with your dad Armond David Reed (Chee-co). We hung around more like brothers than first cousins. We were schooled and raised together under the same man (Cheec-co) who encouraged us to be men and better veraions of ourselves. Our love for one another as family never hit a snag and never wavered. We loved each others presence and applauded each other's accomplishments.

Gonna miss you cuz! Overall, I thank God for our paths merging together as cousins. Sleep well my cousin. May we meet in God's house.

Rest Peacefully. 🙏
