“ I remember when I was a little girl; going over to my aunt and uncle's home for the weekend. This time in particular was my first time going over there for the weekend. I recall it being a little past 5 a.m. very little past 5 am he called from the bottom of the stairs breakfast time come eat. It was my sister and my cousin there also with me . We thought that we are being punked because breakfast this early is different from what we knew, but ok back to sleep or so we thought. A few min later uncle Dan reappeared at the bottom othe of stairs saying "come eat while the food hot" so we had to eat breakfast at 5 :30 am but when we Dae all the food he made, everything you can think of a full spread we felt like kids in a literal candy store..he cooked enough for 200 people and we thought all of this for us 3 kids... Yep we had a buffet. Now you think he was done for the day nope that was breakfast only...up next LUNCH!!!! OOH!

“ The warmth and generosity that Dan and Betty showed to me and my family will forever remain in my heart. Bill always said that Dan was a man of his word, and one thing was certain—he dearly loved Betty. I still remember him saying he had to get home to cook for “Miss Betty Smith” whenever he stopped by with my husband in the afternoons. The kindness and understanding he showed to my son, Jason, will never be forgotten.

“ Dan, Rick and I will truly miss you. You were a beckon of light coming to Rosharon from Missouri City, dressed so nice and neat. We were always so glad to see you. I will never forget how generous you were. I would see a new and delicious beverage in the kitchen and Richard would say, Dan bought it. You were always there for good times and not so good times. I remember the scrumptious meal, you cooked when Dear passed away. I couldn't stop eating. I admired your smile and the way you were always positive and very respectful. Richard so enjoyed his trips to the lake to fish, and so did I coming down for the fish fries that you and Betty had annually. The overnight trips to Louisiana were so much appreciated. You and Betty have hearts of gold. Please know that you will remain in our hearts forever. We love you
