Dante' Javon Anderson

A Life in Melody

Dante' Javon Anderson was born on March 8, 1990, in Houston, Texas, to Renauldo Evans and Shantell Anderson. He was the eldest of five children. From birth, Dante' was dedicated to God by his beloved grandmother, who recognized his special spirit. He grew into a gifted, inquisitive, and joyful young man—known for his humor, his curiosity, and his remarkable talent. At an early age, Dante' accepted Christ at Second Baptist Church – Heights, where his love for singing first began to bloom.

Throughout his school years, Dante' excelled academically and artistically. He was a proud participant in the Gifted and Talented Program at Helms Elementary, Hamilton Middle School, and Project Grad at Reagan Senior High School.

Following high school, Dante' pursued higher education with dedication and excellence. He earned his Bachelor of Arts from Houston Baptist University and later completed his Master's degree at the University of St. Thomas. Dante's passion for music and theater carried him across stages in Houston and beyond. He performed in multiple languages and international settings, bringing a depth of emotion that touched every audience. His voice was not only heard—it was felt.

Dante' is preceded in death by his cherished grandmother, Joan Esther Anderson Whorton, and his special cousin, Darcell Wills.

He leaves to celebrate his life and legacy his loving parents, Renauldo Evans and Shantell Anderson; his siblings, Nia Anderson, Jai Anderson, Kai Anderson, Asia Middleton, Jacquez Evans, Keanu Evans and Taylor Evans; his grandparents, his nieces, uncles and aunts; and a host of devoted family members and dear friends.

Dante's memory will forever live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him. His song continues through every life he touched.
