“ Delmitaaa. I miss you so much we're such a good person at heart always lit up the room and always happy and outgoing. It would always be funny when you would fight with my gma and she would tell you she was going to beat you up lol I miss them times and then when you would make them faces you always had me laughing . You loved my kids so much you always wanted to take one of them home and watch them . Ima miss you delma you were called to soon . Your a angel in heaven now ❤️

“ I already miss your calls bestie. You've been a real blessing to me and I will never forget all the fun times we had together especially when you wanted to eat carne guisada I would always get you whenever I was off. I still cannot believe that the Lord called you home. What am I gonna do without you? 😞 Rest easy ma and until we meet up again. I luv you and watch over all of us.
