“ We have cherished memories of Cousin Reginald’s kind smile and gentle words. Living in Evanston, we always looked forward to visiting you—Aunt Ruth, Uncle Cle, and Larry, and other family members in Joliet, where we shared many wonderful family times together. Gramma always united us, giving us lasting memories filled with joy and togetherness. Rest peacefully, cousin, as you join our Heavenly Father and the Brand family. Your presence will be dearly missed and forever loved. To Barbara and all of Reginald’s loved ones, let’s continue to support each other with love—your cousins always,
Shirley, Peggy, and Denise (Illinois)

“ Uncle Brand was a true man of god and he was always interested in sharing the word of god with me, and today's times. He also was a very important part of teaching me what a good husband should be like. He officiated our wedding ceremony and I am forever grateful.

“ Barbara and family, you have our Deepest sympathy. Oftentimes, during times of bereavement we can not adequately express how our hearts go out to you, but know that we are praying for you, and holding you close in our hearts. So, we go to the scriptures for consolation: Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. May your wonderful memories of cousin Reginald see you through and keep you uplifted.

“ I have sooo many memories of Unc... He was truly a good man and cared about the family. My last favorite memory was on our family vacation. We went to Playa de Carmen, Mexico 🇲🇽 last June for Father's Day. Unc had a good time. He couldn't wait until the next vacation. He swam in that pool like he was still in the navy.

He married my Aunt Barb but left his print on my heart forever. Love you Uncle. Rest In Peace and please keep my Daddy in line 😂

Words sometimes are not sufficient trying to express sorrow and pain. Therefore, since my pain cannot be expressed, I am attempting to express my profound thankfulness, for Cleo being a friend and brother, to God our Father, Hallelujah, in Jesus name, Amen
