“ As High School Classmates, we want to pay tribute to the memory of this warm, friendly and sweet lady who has passed the Valley of the Shadows of death from which no one ever returns. She was a loveable soul. We, her brother and sister classmates admired and loved her so much. We want to simplify and end our expression with a quote often used by Mrs. C. Johnson in our 12th Grade Literature Class. The words never left our minds and speak volumes today. “You never lose what you love if you love what you lose.” --Frank Little

Auntie you will always be in our hearts ❤️ and mind . You loved your family and we all love you. Father in heaven I'm asking you to keep your arms wrapped around our Cousins as that walk a different path, let them have the peace that passes all understanding knowing that Auntie spirit will always be with them all, just look in a mirror you will see her in yourself.

Aunt Liz we will truly miss your smile, kind words, and your patience shown to us. You were our prayer warrior, our strength when we were weak. God took away a angel but we know you are in a better place. I will cherish all the memories. Keeping the family in prayer. Love your niece Pat
