“ I am still in shock to hear that you are gone. I have so many fond memories of you from computer math (you saved me many times by helping with homework!!!) all the way to you taking me to my Senior Prom. Even though we lost touch as the years have gone by, I would always enjoy reading your funny Facebook posts. You were obviously so happy, respected and loved. Prayers of comfort and peace to your family and friends. Rest well my friend.....Tatia Love

“ My memory of Eric was from 1988 PVAMU Engineering Precollege. He was a counselor and became a homie. When the band would visit San Antonio after performing at the Spurs game me and my high-school friends would visit him and the rest of the band at McDonald's. He was one of many cool counselors that became life long friends. You were the reason I joined the band. You protected me and Coraletta from the bruhs. You had Thanksgiving out here in AZ with me and Charles a few years back and we had a crab boil instead of turkey. I never got to see the RV. You said you would never come out here in it. Lol You are a life time friend. I will miss you dearly. Prayers to your wife and family. Clarinet 90. Mrs. Paula Keys-McCoy 💜💛💜💛💜💛

“ *Cousin,
You, Nikki and I grew up together. Whenever Nikki and I got into trouble, it was because Eric said do this or that. LOL We have great childhood memories that will always be cherished. Now, you are home (our citizenship is in Heaven) with your parents and our grandparents. Rest peacefully love Tina Bryant-Richter*

“ Eric, I am without words godbrother! You will definitely be missed. I have known you all of my life! From Aunt Pearl's house, Canaan, PVU, etc... I will be lost at homecoming!!! I definitely will ensure Shai Mookie, Nikia and Danica are taken care of. You will be missed. The laughs and the talks we had will always be remembered! You taught me how to drive a standard shift car... "You will either burn out the clutch or learn to drive this truck". You were an excellent teacher and you were not afraid to ride with me! 🙏 You will definitely be missed! Take your rest! Luv ya Charlotte Jefferson-Huggins

“ Eric, we started out building our 1st houses together seeing each other on Saturdays. We all became great neighbors and friends. Anthony and you became buddies and would hang for hours. When Anthony passed a few years ago, you never stopped checking in. I will always remember that. Rest well my friend!! Sending my thoughts and prayers to Loran. Yolanda and your wife.

“ I cant believe you're gone, this was a shock. We weren't close after high school but we remained friends on Facebook. Thank you for sharing your friendship with me in high school when I was the new kid on the block and wasn't really liked. But you stood in and became my friend and my homecoming date. 😊 I will always remember that. Rest easy my friend. Your classmate and friend.

“ When I received the news of your passing, I was in shock. Please know that I will always be here for Shai (and I’ll keep her entertained—just like we joked about). You never met a stranger, and I always admired that about you. Rest well and enjoy your RV adventures in heaven.

“ Eric and I worked together at Jacobs and he was a super and talented HR business partner. During our time there, we both learned that we were part of the Divine 9 Black Greek Family. Eric jokingly told me we can still be friends even though I was a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. He always had a smile and kind words for everyone. May peace and comfort be with his loved ones, friends and his brothers of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc. during this time. RIP Eric RIP

“ Nephew,

When I spoke with you on the 28th, we laughed when I reminded you if your grandmothers were here how they'd handle the situation. Granny Bryant had her own doctor bag filled with homemade salves and elixirs. She'd break out the Cod Liver Oil, Castor Oil, or whatever it took. Between the two of them and their remedies they would have you up and about in a week. You kept laughing and saying yes they would, and how you miss them. You grew up going to family reunions, and seeing all who've known you all your life. Now you've entered Heaven. They were waiting for you. This is the ultimate reunion.

“ Eric, boy,

I can't believe in a few weeks, it would have been 55 yrs. Since your dad and I bought you home from hospital to your mother and Brenda waiting at Grandmother's house. Time flies. You were the first grandchild on both sides of the family and being teenagers, your aunts and uncles spoiled you. We loved our nephew Eric. We still do. Grandmother and Granny are so happy to see you. Their first grandson. I will always remember your childhood as being adventurous for you had to Check things out first. You would say to me, "Joyce, I got this". Now I say to you, "Eric, I got this". Rest in Peace.

“ We were deeply saddened to hear of Eric's passing and want to extend our heartfelt condolences to your family. Eric was a valued member of the best HR team at Jacobs, and it was truly an honor to work with him. His positivity and joy were infectious, and we will always cherish the stories he shared, especially about PV Homecoming and the deep love he had for his beautiful daughter, Loran.

We are all in shock and disbelief at this tragic loss. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you during this incredibly difficult time. Eric's memory will live on in our hearts, and he will be greatly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

“ Rest well my good friend. The last time we spoke, you were setting me up for an interview and giving me resume advice. After the professional conversation, we spoke about our plans to set out Homecoming 2024 on the yard. We spoke about a mutual friend my Sigma frat who passed away a week before my interview. It seems as if you and I always ended up throughout our professional careers in a city near one another. I will miss you my dear brother from another mother. We never agreed if the purple punch or the blue punch was better, but they seemed to keep us both smiling and content to try to solve which is better annually. May the Omega men and Sigma men continue to have the brotherhood and friendship that we shared together worldwide. Going to miss you Eric. One Love.

“ It has always been E, A.T. and Bri... to say that my life has changed is an understatement. Since 7th grade Eric has been one of the most important people and one of the closest people to me in my life. Every stage of my life he has been a part of... every chapter. He is more than a friend... he is family and my heart is broken. I trust God and I have totally faith in His will... yet and still I am truly going to miss him. I love you, E.
