

Mrs. Farrah Renee Daniels

July 25, 1980 - October 5, 2025

Farrah Renee Roberson Daniels was born on July 25, 1980 in Houston, Texas to Michael Roberson & Bridgett Roberson Davis. Farrah received her education through the Houston Independent School District. As a child, Farrah was outgoing, had a lot of friends, was mischievous, and willful. As a teenager, she was a great babysitter, often taking care of her little sister Summer.

Farrah married her longtime love, Kevin Daniels, on October 30, 2016. Their bond spanned 27 years—filled with love, laughter, and unforgettable memories. Farrah was a proud daughter, mother, sister, cousin, and friend—always ready for a good time and to lend a helping hand.

She loved shopping—especially when she could use her coupons—enjoying seafood, cooking, and serving in the food pantry at her church. She was very fashionable and had a good sense of humor with an infectious laugh. Farrah's presence was felt in every room she walked in, and she was known for her contagious energy by the time she left. Farrah lived her life her way—to the fullest and unapologetically.

“Farrah, was my good friend. She was a nice person with a very BIG heart. Friends like her are very rare. We met when I knocked on her door when she lived on South Lea. I was looking for my boyfriend at the time. I didn't know her! She just lived next door to him. 😭 She thought I was crazy! We instantly hit it off. A few years down the line, I taught her how to extreme coupon. She came and saw my stockpile and was like “Oh, I'm doing this!” She even got stuck up there because to get there you had to go through an attic door. She was determined but we laughed until we cried cause it took about 30min for her to come down! She was scared of heights. Nonetheless, We tore down Joe-Vee's! Once, I had her a party at my house. With just us and the kids. We sang Happy Birthday and She blew out her birthday candles. Farrah, you was my friend and you rocked my world with this. I can't believe you're gone! I'm gonna miss hearing your soft voice and cute laugh. We've been through soo much. Now you're at peace. I love you, Girl💕

To her children: Yall know your mother loved you all endlessly. She was a good mother. A Protector, Provider, Everything in one. She'll live on in our hearts forever. As much as she was there for me and mine, I'm here for you all. My prayers are with you all! Mamma, Lolo, Derrick 💕 ALL of you! God & Time. -Love (Coco) NeCole
