Sending my sincere condolences to the family. I know it is such a hard time to see a beautiful soul such as Minister Scott journey on over to the other side. She was a beautiful WOG from the first day I met her. She had such a beautiful spirit. I know God was pleased to add her back to His garden of beautification. RIH beautiful Queen. We all will have to take that journey one day. My love and prayers to the family. God bless you all with the strength that you need while you go through this rough time. Flora and I are from the same town in Louisiana we lived on the same street 4-5 houses apart, my parents had a house build on their street. We've known each other since we were 11 years old; Flora and I connected instantly, we visited each other on a regular basis. I even learned how to ride her brother Woodrow's bicycle on a gravel road, and I still have a few scars on my knees from falling off the bicycle, but I learned how to ride. I got a chance to know her parents, her siblings and other family members before we grew up, became adults and pursued our lives and careers. Prior to moving to the Houston area more than 30 years ago, I lived in California. We reconnected many years later not knowing where each other lived. I had a doctor's appointment in the Medical Center, here in Houston, I did not drive my car that day, instead I took the bus. After the doctor's appointment, I went to the bus stop to catch the bus home. At the bus stop, there were no seats available for me to sit. I looked at the people sitting on the bench waiting on the bus and I saw this lady that looked familiar, then I recognized her immediately after more than 20 years. I asked her are you Flora Atkins from Winnsboro, Louisiana, she answered yes. I asked her do you know who I am, she said no and that was ok. I told her my last name, but she called my older sister's name instead. I told her she never came to visit you. I told her who I was, it was so strange how we reconnected after so many years had past, I knew this was faith at work. After many years, we lost contact with each other again, faith stepped in once again, one of my sister's friends was telling me that her granddaughter had gone to our hometown. I inquired who did the granddaughter know from our hometown, the connection was with Flora Atkins' family. I asked my sister if she would ask her friend to see if her granddaughter could obtain Flora's number. I was able to get Flora's number from my sister's friend. After getting her number, Flora and I remained in contact with each other on a regular basis throughout the years.

My heart is broken at the loss of such a wonderful, beautiful spirit, my friend Flora Atkins Scott. My condolences to her husband, children, and the rest of her family, and all of you who's lives Flora touched in her time here on God's earth. May she have eternal peace, rest, and rejoice with other family members who preceded her in their eternal journey. May God give you the strength and bless the family as you transition through the challenges and difficulties from such a great loss of a wife, mother, sister, aunt, cousin and friend, Flora Atkins Scott. I share your grief and your loss. Many prayers, blessings, and love.
