“ I first met JC at a family event at Doss Park. I sat at the table with he at Pat. After introduction we laugh and talked as if we had met many years before. Very funny guy. Praying for God to grant the family strength and comfort at his passing.

My cousin Pat and I used to sit and watch the Alfred Hitchcock series when we were kids and we also shared a crush on Roger Ray that worked at Mr Derry,'s store in the Heights. JC was who she fell in love with and they shared a life until her passing. May God bless their family and keep them strong and together with love. Glenda “ JC was a classmate that I didn't really get to know in High school. About 10 years ago, on his last trip home for Pap's funeral. We began to stay in touch and this lasted for a while. JC began to get sick and we lost touch. Now I understand why we lost touch. May you rest in peace and you will be missed by so many Friends, Family and your Classmates.

Goodbye and safe travels,
