“ It took me some time to write this but I finally have enough courage to do so. To one of the straight forward, trash talking, yet peaceful brothers that I ever will have known. Take your rest. You were not only a good coworker when I worked with you but a great friend. Now I know for certain if asked how you feeling you'll certainly say "Say mayne I'm good". To Yolanda, Coldby, his children, family, and friends just know you are certainly in my family's prayers. God bless you all. Romans 8:31

“ Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much..... For you big cousin I love you and you will forever be missed 🙏💔

“ My big brother ! I will miss you so much ! I'll miss those eyes and that big smile! All the jokes you had and your overall personality. It was never a dull moment with you. Even through hurt I witnessed smiles from your end. You showed me so much strength. My cheeks will miss your pinches and I'll miss your tight hugs. Baby sister will never forget you. Thank you for all the times you were right there. Thank you for all the love you gave me. I'll love you always.

“ Uncle Jarvis was such a joyful person. Anytime he was around his playful spirits and laughs were contagious. I loved the brotherhood between him and my dad and looked forward to their stories about my grandma. Every time before he left, he didn't leave with out saying I love you.
