

Mr. Julius Craig Bomar

March 17, 1946 - January 9, 2025

OBITUARY FOR JULIUS CRAIG BOMAR

Julius Craig Bomar also known to everyone as "Doc" gained his wings on January 9, 2025.

Julius was born to Ira and Adell Bomar on March 17, 1946 in Detroit, Michigan. He was the youngest of eight children. Three surviving are Leroy Bomar(brother), Dorothy Bomar(sister) and Ida Averitt(sister). Four siblings proceed him in death are Ira Bomar, Jr. (brother), Eugene Bomar (brother), Tobey Bomar(brother) and Barbara Clipper(sister).

Julius was educated through the Detroit School System. Determined to provide a better life for his three sons, he moved to Texas in the 80's. He was a natural born entrepreneur and master transmission mechanic. He worked at several transmission repair shops earlier in his career. Later owning and managing his own shop. He had a few locations on the Northside of Houston but was well known for his shop on Yale and Tidwell where he built and repaired transmissions until his health failed. He was a very `generous and caring man who always would help people in the area and family that needed employment. In his spare time, he loved to take his family to different restaurants, shop and relax and listen to music. He loved Blues and Jazz.

Julius was married for 35 years to his wife Claudia Bomar. Together they have two daughters Tiffany Green Vaughns and Ashley Bomar-Guidry. His three sons are Nicholas Bills, Craig Bailey and Mack Ruffin. He leaves behind several grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of family and friends.

Julius was a believer in God. He frequently attended Unity Church of Christianity and Lakewood Church Houston, Texas.

Before leaving this earth Julius gave his life to God and made his confession of Christ.

He will truly be missed.
