“ Angela never forget "Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal".

Keith was a delightful person to work with at METRO Police and he always had a smile.

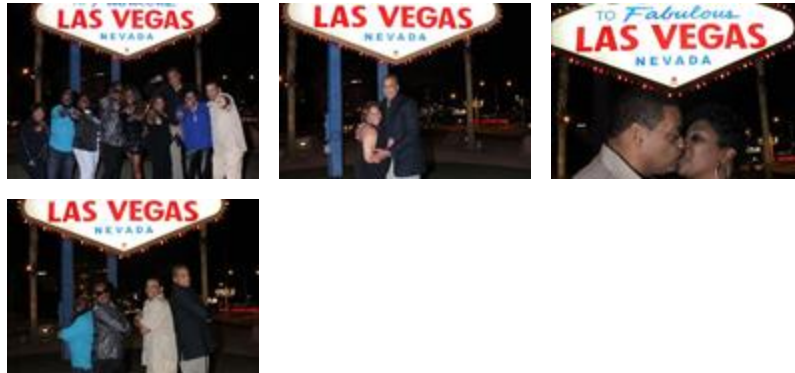

Angela I know firsthand what you are experiencing when you lose the love of your life. Hold on to your memories. Cry when you must, but remember Keith will always be close by, in your heart, the dawning of a new day and a whisper in the wind. Yes, you will smile again because you embraced your vows; in sickness and in health, till death do us part!

“ to my big cousin, keith...i remember going to the football games at forest brook and watching you play...and thinking that you and that whole team were the largest humans in the world...i remember your laugh, after cracking on todd and me, "big water heads"...i remember your kind and gentle nature...so many of my childhood memories are of moments spent with your dad, mom, derek, sophie, todd, and you...saddened but happy you are with God now...prayers for peace and strength to the family --verrick walker

“ The last time we spoke I remember you knowing right off who I was and we didn't talk a lot. Didn't tell you how much that meant. You see I believe if people make an impression in your life the soul knows more than the eyes. Honoring your memory and the life you lived gives my heart joy. “ My deepest condolences to the entire Dubrevil family. Growing up, Keith was the big brother I never had. He always allowed Todd and I to hang with him. He made us tough and showed us the importance of family and friendship. Keith is no longer in pain. Rest well big bro.

“ When I met you in 1993, you made me stand taller because you were such a giant of a man that I dwarfed in size next to you. You were a gentle bear that took care of business in the right way not only helping people, but showing all of us that Police work took on all types of personalities. You were kind when you needed to be, truly understanding when you were given a life story, yet that big firm hand could take charge of a scene. I am the one who is so grateful to God that I was blessed to have known and worked with you. You were a leader, and a good friend, and I will always hold you in my prayers and in my heart.

Rest well, my Brother in Blue, your job is done and you've left so many Officers ready to take over where you left off. We've got it from here.

You will be missed brother. I still remember when you did my background check when I was hired. I remember the phone call when you spoke to my references and you told me "brother you're going to be alright! you'll be hire on soon." We became good friends and I was sad when you retired. May you Rest in Peace.

Wow! We were neighbors as kids and I would never have thought that by researching information on someone else would find me here. You were such a nice young man when we were growing up. Very respectful and so thoughtful. Prayers for your family and may you rest comfortably with the Lord.
