“ I ran into Mr. "KB" at the dealership he worked at, and when I tell you that he was the most kind and trustworthy person there, I'm not lying. He had a calm and welcoming presence and always had time to chat when I came in, even at the end of the month when everyone else was stressed. Learning today of his passing was tough. The folks there still speak of him with reverence and love, and we all miss his spark! I'm so sorry for your loss, I just hope you know how much he affected even those people he saw maybe once a month. He is loved.

“ I'm going to miss the warm greeting, the smile, the firm handshake and hug I looked forward to receiving from my Brother in Christ on Sunday mornings at The Church Without Walls. I'm sure you felt the love we all have for you while you were in our midst. You left us so suddenly and unexpectedly. We pray God's comfort for the family. Rest in heavenly peace my brother. You will surely be missed.

“ Kelv approached me as a friend upon our first acquaintance and never veered. I'll forever place him as the genuine article he first showed me. They tell me its a long road to eternity. He'll travel lightly. Godspeed to his sweet soul.

“ Kelvin was a fun man, always smiling and snacking. His nickname at our dealership was SNACKDADDY and he earned it. Kelvin actually started our annual potluck dinner - had to be 10 + years ago. Rest in Peace my friend.
