To all the family and friends of Curtis from the staff and residents of the "DeGeorge." It was our pleasure to be your home for the years you were here with us. You were a friend to many and a help to all. We consider it an honor to now serve those who have served. Rest in peace, Marine! Job well done....

Thinking of you this morning as your family is having a service for your beloved father. Your father was a veteran and will be laid to rest at the VA cemetery like my father. Perhaps their paths will cross in the other world and may they find a kindred spirit in one another knowing that both their daughters work for HCC. Luci Rivera.

To Lloyd's family and friends, I didn't have the pleasure of meeting him but please know that I'm praying for your peace and comfort during this time. I just recently found out Lloyd and I are first cousins. I'm so sad that I did not get a chance to know him, sounds like he was an amazing man.
