“ Sweetest MiMi I have met. The first time I was introduced to her all I remember is her loving smile and eyes that matched. Every time I saw her she still had the same warm loving smile. She will forever be a happy memory.

“ To the sweetest and most kind of grandmother I’ve ever met in my life. Mimi I remember seeing you for the first time when Erin wasn’t feeling good with her MS and I remember you being the lift for her and the energy for her to let her know that things will be OK. I miss you every day and I hope to strive to be like you and live as long as you do mommy, you are a fixture head in the Duncan household, and I want you to know that I will always be there for your granddaughter and your daughter whenever they need me. You taught us girls for great strength is and how to hold her head up high specially, during when times are very low and we are experiencing such a distress that we don’t know what to do. Mimi, you’re a beautiful example of what it’s like to age, gracefully, and beautifully. I I know we will see each other again, and I know we will laugh and talk and maybe even hug each other. I remember you gave us the biggest hug and I love you and I miss you and until we meet again this is a Seeee later and when I see you I’m gonna make sure I give you the biggest hug because growing up without a grandmother it was very difficult and to me you felt like a grandmother to me because you accept me for who I am and I will never forget you. Erin and Patricia I will always be here for you no matter what. I know I live a couple states but when I get back to Houston, I’ll make sure we all get together go to Whataburger have a Dr Pepper shake and laugh and talk about how amazing Mimi was, and how blessed she was in all of our lives. Sincerely yours, Sumra Bartlett.
