“ Micheal Evans

My little brother, that's what you will always be to me. A father of 2 wonderful children and grandfather. We always called each other on the phone and spoke for hours, the last conversation we had was on Friday night March 17, not knowing it would have been the last time we would be speaking to each other.

I know of all his accomplishments, his struggles and how he found a way to make things work for good. He was a blessed person, we had that conversation. He was the chef, Loving, gentle, kind, peaceful, supportive, provider are a few adjectives used to describe the life he lived, while taking care of his 2 children and being a father and care giver to other children.

I know he loved his mother and siblings dearly because they were always included in our conversations. He was concerned about his mother's well-being because of her illness. He was the first born for both parents, I can't imagine the pain my Aunt and his siblings along with their children and his extended family are feeling at this time, but our family is a praying family so I know the Lord will give us the strength we need to go through this period in our lives. Weeping may endure for a night but joy will come in the morning.

Michelle' you know how much your Daddy loved and cared for you, I remember when you were 18 years old he called me to let me know, his daughter is now grown into an adult.

Mitch, it goes without saying, your Daddy loved you so much, and was looking forward to helping you achieve your gold in playing football. I hope and pray that you both will have a bond that cannot be broken for his sake. To you Joycelyn, yes to you Joycelyn, I know my little brother showed you the way a man should treat woman, I know you definitely will miss him, I pray the Lord will see you through this time.

I will end by saying life is short, let us live it in love, peace and unity. We all need each other to survive, we don't know when will be our time to depart from this earth, so put God first in all that you do, please make your time spent on this earth be meaningful and be a blessing to others.

Matthew, 12:25: “

And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand.”

“ Sending love and hugs to the Evans family and the entire York district. This loss has been a true blow. Mikey and I were classmates through Primary and High schools, and remained in contact via social media. I was looking forward to his message to send birthday greeting to my mom yesterday, since they share the same birthday. The Morant Bay High School Class of 1983 has been stunned. However, we know that God is still on the throne and nothing is done that is not sanctioned by him. Take your eternal rest my friend.

“ This is one of the hardest post I have ever written, Michael my dearest brother, I could never fathom writing R.I.P on a post for you, I missed your hour long call and a I love you after every call. Today is your birthday and I certainly would have heard your voice today. I remember sending you cake for Christmas to surprise you and you throw out the one you bought before. I love you forever and you have taken a piece of my heart with you. Happy heavenly birthday my big brother.

“ *Micky,Mollo,my first friend.This knocks me off my feet.We grew up like brothers.You were so real,so undiluted that you created an impact on everyone you meet.
I remember one day when we were about 10 years old we were going to "ball grung" to play football.Suddenly you Mom (Bunna) called you.You went to her not knowing that a beating was awaiting you.You took your beating,screamed for help.I thought you were'nt coming to play ball anymore but here you came with tears rolling down your face.When I asked,"what happen to you Mollo?",his reply was....."nuh Bunna just beat mi",hiss his teeth,used his shirt to wipe his tears and said to me...."Septy,come on yaa man,mek wi go play ball".That's how real Michael was.....unstoppable!Gone too soon.*

“ My little brother, my cousin, my heart is broken as I am reflecting on all the times we spent together as children growing up until we are adults. I watched you as you became a father of two wonderful children and a grandfather. I watched how you supported your two children and took care of others because that was the gentleman you were. Loving, gentle, kind, peaceful, supportive, provider are a few adjectives used to describe the life you lived. Your mother, siblings, immediate and extended family members are grieving currently because of your untimely death. We are BROKEN but we are NOT DESTROYED!

Why you left us so soon, only God knows. Only He can take away the pain we your family are experiencing at this time, and we will rely on Him for healing. We know you are in a better place of peace. You've finished your life's chores assigned to you. We will picture you in your boat headed out to sea with your fishing pole because you are invited to a fishing hole, where every day is a day to fish. We will not worry or feel sad or wonder why you are missing because we know you have gone fishing with the Master of the Sea. Rest and sleep in His loving arms. SIP little brother.
