

Mrs. Mildred Cummings

September 8, 1937 - February 6, 2026

Mildred Mayfield Cummings was born on September 8, 1937 to Irine Elder & Mr. J.B. Mayfield in Tyler, Texas. She was lovingly known to her family and friends as “Cora”. Mildred was the second of four children. She attended Dumbar Elementary and graduated from Jackson High School.

Mildred joined Mt. Zion CME Church at an early age. Then she moved to Houston, Texas, where she joined First Elizabeth Missionary Baptist Church, under the leader of Rev. J.E. Coleman. She served as a Primary Sunday School Teacher and Vice President of the senior choir until Rev. J.E. Coleman’s death. After Rev. J.E. Coleman’s death, Rev. W.D. Yancy was appointed pastor. Under Rev. W.D. Yancy’s leadership, Mildred served as the Vice President of the ushers until her death.

She has one daughter, Maurice A. Rhone with Ray Don Rhone. Later, Mildred united with Marion Cummings Jr. and two children, Teresa F. Cummings and Marion Cummings III, were born.

She was a faithful member to her church, family, and friends. Mildred Mayfield Cummings loved the lord, going to church, cooking, baking, traveling, working, watching tv & movies, and playing games. She also loved taking care of people. She herself survived cancer and many other surgeries.

She is preceded in death by her farther (J.B. Mayfield), her mother (Irine Elder),

2 brothers (Joe Mayfield & James Mayfield), 2 children (Teresa Cummings & Marion Cummings III), and 1 aunt (Elenora Elder).

She leaves to mourn 1 daughter (Maurice A Rhone Seymore), 1 brother (Ruben Dixon Jr), 4 nieces, 3 nephews, 8 grandchildren, and 11 great grandchildren, and a host of family and friends.
