I admired how Monroe loved and adored my wife and daughters. He most of all loved God with all of his heart, mind and might! Rest well, Monroe. I'm certain that many are your crowns in Glory.

“ Monroe, this chapter may be closing, but the book we started is still being written. Thank you, kind sir, for the lessons, the laughter, and the love.

Rest well. 🙏

Monroe was like a big brother to me. No matter how much time elapsed since our last conversation it was as if we’d spoke the day before. He prayed for and encouraged me during one of the most difficult times in my life. He was always supportive and nonjudgmental. I always felt loved by both Monroe and Pat. May the Lord give strength, peace and comfort to his family. ❤️🙏

“ Mr. Monroe and his beautiful wife welcomed me and my husband Wayne Oliver, Jr. with open arms as a newly married couple of our amazing church family. Mr. Monroe was like a favorite Uncle to us and treated my family as if we were truly apart of his beautiful family and I will never forget that. He always checked on us every Sunday we crossed paths. We will deeply miss you Mr. Monroe. We are praying for Mrs. Pat and the entire family. We love you. ”

“ Cherishing the brief encounters that I had with Brother Monroe Brown. His conversations were enlightening and encouraging in reference to church life and leadership.

Praying God's care, comfort, and compassion for and with the family.

Rev. Joseph Jackson Jr 🙏❤️
