“ Aunt Pam, Aunt Pam, Aunt Pam!!! It still seems so unreal to not have you here to talk to daily. You will be truly missed by me and the family. Your kind heart, love, wisdom, laughter, and strength will forever be remembered by me. Thank you for all the love, support, and guidance you gave me from a young girl up to your last days. God has taken one of the most beautiful flowers from earth and placed in Heaven. No more suffering, no more pain; rest in His loving arms. I love and miss you!! ❤️❤️

“Houston, whatcha got going on over there??”

“ Hey Ma,

I can still remember the first time we met. I was in middle school cutting up and you suspended me from school. Lol you was so sweet about it, I couldn't even be mad. I always admired your beauty and your ability to always keep a positive mindset. Who would've know later in life we'd get the chance to be co workers and have a chance to really build our bond. My work mom and dearest friend. I can hear you laughing now. Always offering sound advice and accepting me as I was. I'm so happy I got the chance to give you your flowers even if it was for your birthday. I'm thankful for the time we had, to know you is to love you. You will be so missed. I love you deeply.

“ My beautiful sister Pam. The hurt I am feeling right now is too deep for words, making it difficult to see beyond my grief. Thank you so much for the pure and unconditional love you gave us, never asking anything back in return. I will honor and cherish the time we spent together for the rest of my life. Like that time when we were kids, you and I always fought over who was going to sleep in the top bunk bed. Yeah you won and I know why you wanted to sleep up there. Because it was peaceful. As I look back at the time we all spent together singing, dancing, cutting up, eating all that food, those times were "Priceless". I would do anything to have you back with us again. I thank God for you and your beautiful family, and that first grand baby "Cadence", you know you got the spoiling situation going. But sis look, you're at peace now. The God who created all things, the one who has never left you and is still by your side has ordered you to "sleep". He knows exactly what is best for you. No more pain, no more suffering. All you gotta do is sleep. So take your rest sis. We love you Pamela Jean and we will miss you so much. May God bless you and shine his "Forever" light upon you until that day when he call your name and you yourself will answer the call and we will all meet again. Amen.
