“ I thank God for a Christian friendship that I had in Chisley. He was a coworker for 23 years; we developed a deep lasting bond of friendship over the last 10 years. He will be deeply missed and the memories of him will be treasured forever. I will definitely missed how he would try to imitate the way I walk for knee slapping laughs. Rest on Friend.

“ We all served in the 503rd transportation company as boys and grew to become men. Robert Chisley was the catalyst of the group and kept us all together. He personifies what an upright man should be, a good husband to his wife and a great father to his kids. He will be truly missed by all of his friends and loved ones. My condolences go out Shauna And The Children And Family . Rob was a good man. I know with the faith he has in God his spot in heaven was reserved. Blessings to The Family , John Coates And Family
