“ I met you in the late 80's early 90's when Kesha and I were in a dance group and I knew right away you were not to be messed with, and you were a serious father who loved his daughter. I looked at you with the utmost respect and appreciated that you entrusted me and my friend to treat her with that same respect as we wanted our sisters to be given and we did to the letter. Even though you didn't know us youngens I know we appreciated you let her live out that part of our lives. So, sir I know I hadn't seen you in a long time I still remember that and still have that same respect for you and love for her that I had then. I will always be here as I can for my sister as she calls walk, run or fly as long as I'm here. Respectfully, G. Young

“ On behalf of the Veazie, Johnson family of Opelousas, Louisiana we are deeply saddened by the loss of our dear brother-in-law. We will miss you and we will always keep you alive in our hearts and our memories of you and the family. I always enjoyed hearing you play the sax at family gatherings and although it's been a minute you wowed us with your love for music. Don't know if you ever got the cooking part right but that's ok. Our dear sister Pam may she rest in peace always had your back. So sleep in eternal peace my brother. We love you FOREVER.

“ My heart goes out to the Houston Family, and I'm so sorry for your loss. I will always remember Robert as a kind neighbor and friend. I'm forever thankful how he used to look out for my mother on occasions when my brother had to work a late evening shift. May he rest in eternal peace.

“ It's still unreal that you gone. It was one year ago we meet at the Doctor's office. You were always making me laugh with your smile and jokes. Who what have known that we would become good friends. It was just last week that I found out your first name. A beautiful name from the bible. I thank you for the time we had with each other and will remember you my entire life. Rest in Heaven my Dear Friend. I will truly miss you. To the entire Houston family my heart felt condolences and I will keep you all in prays.
