“ Roy had such a mellow singing voice. I remember him leading the Young Adult Choir at Holman St. Baptist Church back in the 70's. His memories linger on. Rest on my friend.

“ I remember Mr.Hall giving me a karate chop on the shoulders when I acted up in class, which was often. He always gave his students great direction. It was a pleasure being one of his students. Much love to his family at this time of bereavement. He will no doubt be missed by many.
