

Mrs. Shirley McCullough

May 12, 1940 - January 11, 2023

Shirley Ann McCullough was born in Nacogdoches, Texas on May 12, 1940 to Sam Sweet and Maxine Sibley. Preceding her in death are her parents and husband Morris McCullough. On January 11, 2023, she departed this life to reunite with them for all eternity. Shirley moved to Houston with her family where she received her formal education from the local schools in the Houston area and graduated from Phillis Wheatley High School in 1958. She continued her education and began her career as a nurse at what was then Hermann Hospital. She became an LVN in 1962 but returned to school earning her RN degree dedicating over 45 years of service in the healthcare profession. Shirley retired from Memorial Hermann-TMC in 2007. Shirley accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. She attended Wyatt Chapel MBC of Prairie View, Texas for many years. The last five years, Shirley has lived in Los Angeles with her daughter. But when visiting, she always attended Mount Tabor MBC. Shirley loved Houston and her family has brought her home.

Shirley leaves behind to cherish her memories: her daughter Sheila Richardson (husband,

Aubrey); son, Horace Davis, Jr.; god sister Linda Hunter; granddaughters,

Desire Davis and Ashley

Richardson and a host of friends and family

Truly she will be missed, her radiant smile, her caring and giving heart and her jazzy style (Proverbs 31:10-31) Who can find a Virtuous woman.
