“ He was an assistant pastor at the West Avenue COGIC in Ashtabula, Ohio when I was a child. As a young adult, I observed him serve as the episcopal adjutant to our jurisdictional bishop. When he moved to Texas from Ohio, my bishop appointed me to take his place. May a host of angels greet you in paradise. Pastor John Banks/servant of the Lord. 🙏

“ Bless God for allowing our paths to cross my friend. Supt.Banks was truly a good friend to my family. I have good memories of the times we have shared together along with Myra. You have taken your rest and I know we will meet again in that great morning. Much love to my good friend Myra. I know God will give her the strength she needs in this hour.
