“ Mrs Vera Johnson is my last aunt on my mothers side. I am so happy I talked to her a few days before her passing. She had such a sweet disposition. I'm also happy to have seen her when she came thru Prescott, AR on her way home after funeralizing her brother in Rockford. Cousins, let's not break the chain. God will see you through this season. I was in your shoes in 2003. May God continue to Bless you.

“ Hey Biddie my grandmother.... I can't believe you are really gone. All I have now is memories! You was a very strong woman, stubborn but strong. I will always ask Biddie you need anything or you hungry? You will say , no I'm good! Then I ask what have you ate? She will reply saying just a boil egg and bacon! I will have to ask you multiple times till you finally say you want something. I'm gonna miss that Biddie! It's so many memories I could say. We gonna really miss you Biddie! After loosing my mother, now you. I feel so sad! They say cherish every moment with the one you love. Its funny how life can have so many reality checks! Now you home in paradise with all your love ones you miss so dearly. No more goodbyes just will see you later! Watch over us all! Tell my mother "I miss her! No more pain and suffering! We will soon see you on the other side! Love you Biddie and Thank you for everything!! We love you! 🥺😇💖🙏🙏🙏🌟

“ Aunt Biddy, you will be truly missed. You are that aunt everyone says I got my wit and sense of humor from. I have so many fond and funny memories (Mrs. White) lol. You were a real fighter and you fought a good fight and finished your course. You have joined all your siblings now and your parents. Regardless of your age, we are never ready to say that finale goodbye, but we know you are in a far better place. REST in Him. See ya later. Much love. Your niece Pat Ferguson
